FARM NOTES: Oriole farm clubs had a combined 353-344 (.506) won-lost record during 1967, the sixth straight year the system as a whole finished above the break-even level . . . In that time, the overall record of the system stands at 2393 wins and 2058 losses, a .538 percentage—best among all 20 major league organizations.

Two pennants and a near-miss highlighted the 1967 season . . . Flags were won by Elmira in the Western Division of the Eastern League and by Bluefield in all-rookie Appalachian League . . . Rochester, in the International League, finished the season in a first place tie with Richmond, then lost a one-game play-off for the title.

With the elevation of Earl Weaver to the Oriole coaching staff from the managerial post at Rochester, each of the six clubs in the chain has a new manager for 1968: Billy DeMars moves to Rochester from Elmira; Cal Ripken to Elmira from Miami; Joe Altobelli to Stockton from Bluefield; Harry Malmberg to Miami from Stockton . . . Bill Werle, former major league pitcher, has assumed the reins at Aberdeen . . . The Bluefield pilot was unnamed at press time.

The list above contains only those who appeared for Orioles in at least one regular season game.

Larry Doby, for example, was on roster during winter of '57-'58 but was traded before season started.

Bruce Swango and Larry Haney (and possibly others) were with club during a season but did not appear in any games.

1967 HIGHLIGHTS— ORIOLES vs. OPPONENTS

BOSTON: The Orioles were 10-8 against the American League champions, the only first division club over which they held an edge for the year . . . The Orioles won the first and last parts of the annual series, while the Red Sox captured the middle . . . The O's won the first four games, the Red Sox took six of the next seven and the Orioles won five of the last seven.

Fenway Homers: The Orioles hit 18 homers at Fenway Park, an average of two per game . . . In the past two years, the Orioles have belted 37 home runs in 18 games there.

Fenway Wins: The O's were 6-3 at Fenway during '67 and have won 14 while dropping four there in the last two years.

Fireworks: The Orioles put on the greatest power show in the club's history at Fenway Park May 17 . . . A major league record was established when seven different players hit home runs (Blair, B. Robinson, F. Robinson, Etchebarren, Bowens, Powell and Johnson) as the Orioles won, 12-8 . . . The O's tallied nine times in the seventh frame as Etchebarren-Bowens and Powell-Johnson hit back-to-back homers.

Miscellaneous: Jim Lonborg had a 4-1 record vs. Baltimore . . . Three times the O's shut out the Bosox 10-0 . . . The Orioles held a 103-83 advantage in runs scored for the year . . . Frank Robinson hit seven home runs against Boston, four off Darrell Brandon.

CALIFORNIA: The Orioles won four of the first six games of the year between the two clubs, then California took nine of the next 11 . . . One game in the yearly series was cancelled.

Big Sweep: The O's had a great day at the plate while sweeping a pair against the Angels June 6 at Anaheim Stadium by scores of 16-4 and 11-1 . . . The Angels used 12 pitchers as the Orioles rapped out 33 hits in the two games . . . In the opener, Curt Blefary drove in seven runs with three homers (one with the bases loaded) while Paul Blair batted home four runs.

Twin Bills: The two clubs played five doubleheaders with the Orioles winning one, losing two and splitting two.

Miscellaneous: Ten different California pitchers gained wins over the Orioles . . . Twelve of the 17 games were decided by one or two runs . . . Andy Etchebarren had the best bat mark (.353) for the O's against the Angels.

CHICAGO: The Orioles were 7-11 vs. Chicago for the year . . . When Tom Phoebus beat the Sox, 4-1, on June 29, it brought to an end a streak of nine straight Oriole losses to Chicago . . . Three of the setbacks were left over from 1966.

Triple Play: The Sox performed a triple play, around-the-horn, in the nightcap of the August 6 doubleheader . . . With Boog Powell on second and Frank Robinson on first, Brooks Robinson hit a hard grounder to Ken Boyer at third . . . Boyer stepped on third for the first out, threw to Don Buford at second to force F. Robinson and Buford's relay to Tom McCraw at first beat B. Robinson to complete the triple-killing.

Sox Homers: Chicago hit more home runs (10) at Memorial Stadium than any other visiting A.L. club in 1967.

Low-Hitters: In five games Oriole pitchers restricted the White Sox to four hits and to three hits in another game.

Blair Tops: Paul Blair was the only Oriole regular to hit over .300 against Chicago last year . . . He hit a resounding .373 with 25-for-67.

CLEVELAND: The Orioles and Indians split their series for the year, 9-9.

Drabo Loses: The Indians handed Moe Drabowsky his first loss in two years as an Oriole (after 12 straight wins) when Tony Horton hit a home run in the bottom of the 12th inning July 28 at Cleveland for a 1-0 victory.

Extra Innings: The two clubs played three long extra-inning games during the year and Cleveland won each of them . . . The scores were 5-4 in 14 innings June 30; 1-0 in 12 innings July 28 and 2-1 in 13 innings August 10.

Curfew: The Baltimore midnight curfew halted the nightcap of the June 30 two-night doubleheader, after the first game consumed four hours and 53 minutes before the Tribe won, 5-4, in 14 frames . . . The second game was stopped after five innings with the O's leading on a Boog Powell homer . . . When action resumed the following afternoon, the Orioles erupted for six runs in two innings and went on to win easily, 8-1.

DETROIT: The Tigers completely dominated the year's play, winning 15 and losing three . . . The O's won the opener of the series but Detroit took the next nine in succession . . . Brooks Robinson's two-run homer gave the Orioles a 2-1 win on August 2 to snap the streak, but the Tigers roared back to win five more in a row.

Riots: A three-game series in Detroit July 25-27 had to be shifted to Baltimore because of riots in the Motor City . . . In return, two Tiger games at Baltimore September 12-13 were transferred to Detroit.

Earl Wilson: The ace of the Tigers, Earl Wilson, was 4-0 against the Orioles last year to improve his lifetime mark to 16-5 vs. Baltimore . . . He has won 15 times in his last 17 decisions against the Orioles.

Big Four: The four Detroit starters had a prosperous year against the Orioles, winning 14 of 15 decisions . . . Earl Wilson and Mickey Lolich were 4-0, Joe Sparma 3-0 and Denny McLain 3-1.

No-Hitter: The Tigers failed to get a hit but got a 2-1 win over the O's in the opener of the April 30 twin-bill . . . The Detroiters tallied both runs in the top of the ninth inning, one scoring on a wild pitch by losing hurler Steve Barber and the other on an error . . . Barber went 8.2 frames while absorbing the setback and Stu Miller got the final out.

KANSAS CITY: The Orioles were 10-8 against the Athletics last year.

Quick Game: The O's played their fastest game of the year, one hour and 47 minutes, while beating the A's 2-1 on September 1 as Pete Richert bested Jim Hunter.

Richert's Record: Richert, after joining the O's May 29, beat the A's four times without losing . . . He also picked up a win over them while with Washington to post a 5-0 mark for the year.

Catfish: Jim (Catfish) Hunter logged a 4-1 record against the Orioles in '67.

Great Year: Frank Robinson had a tremendous year against the A's . . . He hit .422 (27-for-64) with five home runs and 15 runs batted in.

MINNESOTA: The O's were 8-10 vs. the Twins, winning four and losing five at home and away.

Robby's 400th: Frank Robinson got the 400th home run of his major league career off Jim Katt September 9 at Memorial Stadium . . . He hit No. 399 off Dean Chance 11 days earlier at Metropolitan Stadium.

Hot Series: Tony Oliva collected 15 hits in 21 at-bats in a five-game series September 7-10 at Memorial Stadium . . . He collected five doubles and a triple among the safeties and at one point lashed out nine straight hits.

Killer Connects: Harmon Killebrew hit five home runs against the Orioles last year to raise his lifetime total to 51 off Baltimore pitching.

Big Series: The O's and Twins drew 101,959 in four dates at Metropolitan Stadium August 28-31, an average of 25,490 per date.

NEW YORK: The Orioles had more success against New York than they did against any other club last year, winning the season's series 13-5 . . . The O's were 7-2 at Yankee Stadium and, since July 16, 1964, have compiled a 28-6 record (.824) there.

Oriole Pitching: The Orioles shut out the Yankees five times, limiting them to a total of 17 hits in these games . . . In nine games Oriole pitchers held the Yanks to four hits or less . . . The collection included a one-hitter (by Palmer), a two-hitter (by Phoebeus) and seven four-hitters.

Trio of Wins: Tom Phoebeus and Pete Richert each had 3-0 records vs. New York last year.

Two Homers: The Yankees managed to hit just two homers at Memorial Stadium last year . . . Mickey Mantle hit one and Joe Pepitone the other.

Pacesetter: Frank Robinson led the Oriole hit parade against the Yankees with a .404 average (19-for-47).

WASHINGTON: The Orioles held a 10-8 margin over the Senators with each team having better success in the other's park . . . The O's were 6-3 at D. C. Stadium while the Nats were 5-4 at Memorial Stadium.

Long Games: Five Oriole-Senator games went into extra innings, with Baltimore winning four . . . The Orioles played the longest game in their history when they went 19 innings June 4 at Memorial Stadium before winning 7-5 on Andy Etchebarren's two-run homer.

Swift Attack: The Senators struck suddenly for seven runs in the sixth inning of the July 22 game to win, 7-5.

Top Total: Camilo Pascual gained two victories over the Orioles to increase to 20 his lifetime victory total against Baltimore . . . He ranks first among currently active hurlers in career victories over the Orioles.

Hit Leader: Brooks Robinson led the Oriole assault for the year against Washington pitching with a .403 average.

RULES OF INTEREST

FREE AGENT DRAFT RULE—A BRIEF SUMMARY: Major League and National Association clubs meet twice a year for the purpose of drafting free agent player talent . . . Selection of a free agent entitles the club to the exclusive right of negotiation with that player for a specified period (from date of selection until 15 days prior to next draft meeting).

Approximate dates of draft meetings: Summer (June 10) and Winter (last Saturday of January) . . .

There are two phases to each draft meeting:

(1) Regular Phase—selection of free agents in inverse order of major league standings . . . Limitations on number of selections by each organization at each level: Major League (1), "AAA" (1), "AA" (1), "A" (unlimited) . . . Minor league clubs select in the same relative order as their parent clubs.

(2) Special Phase—selection of free agents who had been drafted at a previous meeting, but who were not subsequently signed before the negotiation right expired . . . It is possible for a club to redraft a player whom it had been unable to sign after the original selection, but only with express written consent of that player . . . Order of selection in the special phase is determined by lot.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: A game terminated by curfew or by a pre-arranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed far enough to be an official game (i.e. 4½ or 5 innings) . . .

A game terminated by light failure is a suspended game anytime after it begins.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same ground . . . If this is not possible, other provisions for resumption are specified in American League Regulation 3.8 . . .

A game called at the END of a completed inning AFTER NINE INNINGS for any reason shall be a TIE game and NOT a SUSPENDED game, and must be replayed in its entirety.

TRADING REGULATIONS:

Waiver Requirements	In Effect:

(Inter-League)
No Waivers (inter-league trading period).....	November 20	December 15
League Waivers (assignor's league).....	December 15	June 15
Major League Waivers.....	June 15	Last Day of Season
League Waivers (assignor's league).....	Last Day of Season	November 20

BATTING/PITCHING (ERA) CHAMPION QUALIFICATION: 502 or more plate appearances. 162 or more innings.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: To qualify as a Rookie a player may not have spent more than 45 days on a big league roster between cut-down dates (the 31st day of season and Sept. 1), AND may not have exceeded 90 official at bats or 45 innings pitched at major league level.

"SAVE" RULE (as formulated by Sporting News)—Credit a save if a relief pitcher: (1) faces the tying or winning run at any time and finishes the game while preserving a lead . . . (2) enters the game in the final inning with a two-run lead and finishes the game while preserving a lead . . . (3) enters with a three-run lead and pitches two or more innings while preserving a lead . . . Ordinarily a pitcher must finish a game to be credited with a save, except in a case when a pitcher faces the tying or winning and then is removed for a pinch-hitter, and the subsequent pitcher(s) does not face the tying or winning run while finishing the game.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLES: This award is presented annually by the Sports Boosters of Maryland, based on a vote taken by the announcers and writers who travel with the club . . . Winners have been: Chuck Diering (1954), Dave Philley (1955), Bob Nieman (1956), Billy Gardner (1957), Gus Triandos (1958), Gene Woodling (1959), Brooks Robinson (1960), Jim Gentile (1961), Brooks Robinson (1962), Stu Miller (1963), Brooks Robinson (1964), Stu Miller (1965), Frank Robinson (1966), Frank Robinson (1967).

SHRINE OF IMMORTALS: The Shrine, jointly sponsored by the Orioles and Maryland Professional Baseball Players Association, was created in 1960 to recognize men with Maryland backgrounds who have distinguished themselves in professional baseball . . . To qualify, a candidate must either be a native of Maryland or have been a player or official of the Orioles, International or American League, for a minimum of three years . . . Two new members are admitted to the Shrine each year . . . One is selected by the MPBPA and the other by a vote of fans at Memorial Stadium on Shrine of Immortals Night.

There are presently 16 members in the Shrine: Frank (Home Run) Baker, Jack Bentley, Max Bishop, Joe Boley, Jack Dunn Sr., Jimmy Foxx, Lefty Grove, Merwin Jacobson, Charlie Keller, Fritz Maisel, Bill Nicholson, Johnny Neun, Jack Ogden, Eddie Rommel, Babe Ruth and Tommy Thomas.

TRIPLE CROWN AWARD: This award, created in 1966 by the National Brewing Company, was established to honor players who lead their league in hitting, home runs and runs batted in, an accomplishment achieved only 13 times in major league history.

The first recipient of the award was Frank Robinson, of the Orioles, who received it in 1966 for leading the American League with a .316 batting average, 49 home runs and 122 runs batted in . . . Carl Yastrzemski, of the Red Sox, received the award this past winter for his 1967 American League-leading .326 batting mark, 44 home runs and 121 runs batted in . . . Each winner receives the award for his permanent possession while a duplicate award has been donated to the Baseball Museum at Cooperstown, N. Y., which bears the names of all winners.

Actually, only 11 different players have won the Triple Crown . . . Rogers Hornsby (Cardinals, '22 and '25) and Ted Williams (Red Sox, '42 and '47) have won it twice . . . Other winners: Ty Cobb (Tigers, '09), Heinie Zimmerman (Cubs, '12), Jimmy Foxx (A's, '33), Chuck Klein (Phillies, '33), Lou Gehrig (Yankees, '34), Joe Medwick (Cardinals, '37) and Mickey Mantle (Yankees, '56).

EDDIE WEIDNER RETIRES: Trainer Eddie Weidner, an institution in his own right, retired following the 1967 season after 52 years with Oriole clubs . . . Weidner joined the International League Orioles in 1916 as scoreboard operator, later became clubhouse man and was promoted to trainer in 1922—a position he held 45 years.

He worked under 15 managers, from Jack Dunn Sr. to Hank Bauer, and was on the scene for all seven of Dunn's consecutive International League pennant winners (1919-1925) . . . He was head trainer for the American League in the 1958 and 1967 All-Star games and lists the Orioles' 1966 world championship year as his greatest thrill in baseball.

He and his wife, Margaret, have been married nearly 43 years and are the parents of four children: Peggy, Evelyn, Eddie Jr. and Joan . . . They also have 9 grandchildren . . . Ralph Salvon, who worked for two years as Weidner's assistant, succeeded him as Oriole trainer.

Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., has lived in New Jersey and now makes home near Memorial Stadium in Baltimore . . . Hit two grand-slam homers in 1967 (the only Oriole to hit any) . . . First came off Detroit's Denny McLain April 28 at Memorial Stadium and second was against California's Lew Burdette in first game of June 6 doubleheader at Anaheim Stadium . . . That grand-slam was part of greatest individual power display by any Oriole during the year . . . He hit two other homers, in addition to the one with the bases loaded, and drove in 7 runs as the O's won, 16-4 . . . Now has three lifetime grand-slams with O's.

His three home runs rank him with Boog Powell as the only Orioles ever to hit that many in a game (Powell has done it three times) . . . Finished year with 22 homers and was second on the club behind Frank Robinson in RBI's with 81 . . . Half of his home run production for the year was staged at Memorial Stadium, including a pair off KC's Bob Duliba April 22.

Tied Frank Robinson for the longest hitting streak of the year by an Oriole, 12 games . . . His streak took place June 4-13 and he batted .339 with 19-for-56 . . . Later in the year, August 11-20, he hit safely in 11 straight games with 17-for-42 (.405) . . . Matched Frank Robinson for club leadership in driving home key runs (42) . . . Paced O's in walks (73) for the second time in three seasons . . . Has drawn 234 passes in three years with O's . . . Showed versatility by playing left field, right field and first base.

Named American League "Rookie of the Year" in 1965 by the Baseball Writers' Association of America and SPORTING NEWS . . . Selected New Jersey's "Pro Athlete of the Year" for 1966 . . . Was all-state choice in baseball and football at Mahwah, N. J., High School . . . Married the former Eileen Fitzgerald in January, 1965 . . . They are expecting their first child in August.

*Acquired with John Orsino and Mike McCormick from San Francisco in deal for Billy Hoelt, Jack Fisher and Jim Coker on 12/15/62.

Born in Northampton, Mass., and now lives in San Carlos, Calif. . . . Had worst won-lost record of his career in 1967, but continues as one of game's all-time great relief pitchers . . . Lost 8 of his first 9 decisions in 1967, but regained touch over the last two months of season . . . From July 30 on, covering 15 appearances, he allowed 6 earned runs in 32.3 innings (1.65 ERA) while winning two, losing two and picking up 4 saves . . . Made lowest number of appearances (42) in 5 seasons with O's . . . Finished 31 games, high for Oriole relievers.

Combined with Steve Barber to no-hit Tigers in opener of April 30 twin-bill, but Detroit won, 2-1 . . . Pitched one-third of inning after Barber had gone 8.2 frames . . . Had dubious distinction of giving up Mickey Mantle's 500th major league homer, May 14, at Yankee Stadium . . . Picked up 8 saves for year, two against both Boston and California

... In five years with O's has compiled 38-36 record with 90 saves and 2.37 earned run average ... Has worked in 297 games and given up 132 earned runs in 501 innings ... Here is his record (W-L, Saves) vs. each American League club: Boston (3-4, 12); California (5-5, 12); Chicago (2-3, 9); Cleveland (4-5, 9); Detroit (4-4, 10); Athletics (6-0, 9); Minnesota (5-5, 10); New York (4-5, 11) and Washington (5-5, 8).

Winner of SPORTING NEWS "Fireman of Year" award with Giants in 1961 and Orioles in 1963 ... Led N.L. in ERA in 1961 ... Pitched 1.1 innings with Giants in two Series games in 1962 but had no decisions ... Winning pitcher in first All-Star game in 1961 and stopped American League from breaking tie in second game ... With none out and Kaline on with potential winning run, he fanned Mantle, Howard and Sievers ... Game halted by rain at that point ... Selected "Most Valuable Oriole" in 1963 and 1965 by vote of traveling writers and announcers under sponsorship of Sports Boosters of Maryland ... He is the only pitcher ever chosen and ranks with Brooks and Frank Robinson as only multiple winners of award.

Insurance broker during off-season ... Served in U. S. Navy from December, 1945 to October, 1947 ... Began pro career with Salisbury, Md., in old Eastern Shore League ... He and his wife, Jayne, were married in 1952 and have three children: Scott (10/15/54), Lori (7/6/56) and Kim (9/12/57).

Born in Little Rock, Ark., and now makes home in Lutherville, a Baltimore suburb . . . Named to the American League All-Star team by SPORTING NEWS for the 6th year . . . Led Orioles in games (158), at-bats (610), hits (164), runs (88) and shared club lead in sacrifice flies (8) with Dave Johnson . . . Tied major league mark for most assists by third baseman (405), set by Harland B. Clift of 1937 St. Louis Browns . . . Tied American League record by leading third basemen in assists for 5th year . . . Might have broken Clift's record but did not play in last three games of season.

His .980 fielding mark was tops for A.L. third basemen and he was voted (by fellow American League players) his 8th straight Rawlings "Gold Glove" . . . Committed 11 errors while handling 563 total chances . . . Selected to play in 11th straight All-Star game (dating back to 1960) . . . Accounted for A.L.'s only run with sixth-inning homer off Chicago's Ferguson Jenkins . . . Went 1-for-6 at plate and now has .345 average (10-for-29) in All-Star competition . . . Finished year with 156 career homers to assume club record in this category . . . Tied Gus Triandos' record of 142 with homer July 9 off New York's Mel Stottlemyre . . . Set record four days later at Fenway Park with homer off Boston's Lee Stange . . . Ranked third on club (behind Curt Blefary and Frank Robinson) with 39 key runs batted in . . . Got 1,500th major league hit May 18 off Pete Richert, then with Washington . . . Batted safely in 10 straight games July 8-18 with 17-for-39 (.436).

Had trouble getting started at plate early in year . . . Climbed to .246 by July 8 and then went on hitting spree . . . Batted .382 (39-for-102) in next 26 games to lift average to .281 through August 6 . . . Then followed terrible slump in which he got just two hits in 51 appearances . . . Broke slump August 20 and hit .313 (47-for-150) the rest of year . . . Batted .403 vs. Washington with 29-for-72, including 4 homers and 11 RBI's . . . Socked 10 straight homers with bases empty between May 19 and August 2.

Displayed perennial durability by playing in every one of club's first 158 games before taking a breather . . . Played in every game in 1961, 1962 and 1964 while missing one game in 1963 . . . Chosen "Most Valuable Oriole" in 1960, 1962 and 1964 . . . Twice during career has collected 8 straight hits . . . Won American League's MVP award in 1964 and finished second in voting once (1966) and third twice (1960 and 1965) . . . Has been with O's all or part of last 13 seasons, starting in 1955 when he was elevated from York near end of season . . . He and his wife, Connie, were married in 1960 and are the parents of three sons: Brooks (7/24/61), Chris (2/22/63) and Michael (3/11/64).

*Acquired from Cincinnati for Milt Pappas, Jack Baldschun and Dick Simpson on 12/9/65.

Born in Beaumont, Tex., and now makes home in Los Angeles . . . Despite missing a month of action last year because of eye injury, he led the O's in hitting (.311), home runs (30), RBI's (94), slugging percentage (.576) and hit by pitches (7) . . . Ranked second in A.L. behind Carl Yastrzemski in hitting and slugging and was third in homers and fourth in RBI's . . . Suffered concussion in collision at second base with Chicago's Al Weis in fourth inning of June 27 game . . . Trying to break up doubleplay when injury occurred . . . Spent two days in hospital . . . Double vision resulted from twin blow (hitting Weis' knee and then ground) . . . Missed 28 games and returned to action July 29 vs. Cleveland, although still experiencing some problem with right eye . . . Batted .337 before injury, .282 after returning to service.

Reached 400-level in career homers with circuit clout off Minnesota's Jim Katt September 9 at Memorial Stadium . . . Only 12 other players have reached this milestone: Babe Ruth, Willie Mays, Jimmie Foxx, Ted Williams, Mel Ott, Mickey Mantle, Lou Gehrig, Eddie Matthews, Stan Musial, Hank Aaron, Ernie Banks and Duke Snider . . . Finished year with 403 total . . . Selected to American League All-Star team but did not play because of eye injury . . . Eighth time on All-Star squad (6 with Reds) . . . Named to A.L. All-Star team by SPORTING NEWS for second straight year (also named to National League team twice while with Reds).

Tied Curt Blefary for team leadership in key RBI's (42) and for longest hitting streak during year by an Oriole, 12 games . . . His streak went from May 26 through June 6 and he batted .392 with 20-for-51 . . . Played 60 games at Memorial Stadium and batted .340 (69-for-203) with 19 homers and 50 RBI's . . . Drove in 5 runs vs. Washington May 2 . . . Batted home four runs in four different games . . . Hit .422 vs. Athletics (27-for-64), .404 vs. New York (19-for-47) and .348 vs. Boston (16-for-48) with 7 homers and 17 RBI's in 11 games against Sox.

Hit pair of home runs vs. Minnesota April 13 and Boston May 27 . . . Now has hit two homers in a game 9 times in two years for O's . . . Got his 2,000th major league hit, a 6th-inning single, in nightcap of September 22 twin-bill vs. Boston . . . Triple Crown winner and unanimous selection as MVP in American League in 1966 . . . Only player in history to be chosen MVP in both leagues (won N.L. honor in 1961 with Reds) . . . Received many honors in 1966: Named Major League and American League Player of the Year by SPORTING NEWS, selected to Associated Press and United Press International major league all-star teams, chosen A.P. Male Athlete of Year, 1966 World Series MVP, Most Valuable Oriole and others.

Became first (and only player to date) to hit ball completely out of Memorial Stadium when he slammed homer off Cleveland's Luis Tiant May 8, 1966 . . . Ball cleared left field seats, landed in parking lot 451' from plate and rolled to a stop 540' away . . . Hit two homers in 1966 World Series that helped propel O's to four-game sweep over Dodgers

... Both came off Don Drysdale ... First came in opening inning of first game and gave Orioles 2-0 lead ... Other homer accounted for only run in 1-0 victory in fourth game that wrapped up series for O's ... Member of N.L. All-Star teams in 1956, 1957, 1959 (both games), 1961 (both games), 1962 (second game) and 1965 ... National League's "Rookie of the Year" in 1956 and "Sophomore of the Year" in 1957 ... Winner of "Gold Glove" award as leftfielder in 1958 ... Led National League in slugging percentage three times ... Holds Cincinnati career records in runs, homers, total bases, extra base hits and batting average ... Set most of personal highs in 1962: Average (.342), runs (134), hits (208), total bases (380), doubles (51) and RBI's (136).

One of 11 children ... Grew up in Oakland and went to McClymonds High School there ... Played basketball with Bill Russell, Boston Celtics coach ... Married Barbara Ann Cole October 28, 1961 ... They have two children: Frank Kevin (9/8/62) and Nichelle (8/24/65).

TRAINING NOTES

This is 10th straight year the Orioles have trained in Miami . . . The Orioles played only 11 dates in Miami Stadium last spring, fewest in nine years, yet played to 50,513 paid admissions to average 4,592 per date, highest ever.

Frank Robinson has led the club in hitting and home runs in both spring training and the regular season in each of his two years in an Oriole uniform . . . Last spring he hit .323 (20-for-62) with 7 homers in Florida and had a .373 (22-for-59) mark with 8 home runs in 1966.

Curt Blefary led the Orioles in RBI with 17 in 1967 while Dave McNally with a 4-0 record and 1.37 ERA (4 ER—26 inn.) was the leading hurler . . . Bill Dillman's performance in spring training a year ago earned him an originally unexpected spot on the varsity—he allowed only one earned run in 13 exhibition innings.

Some Orioles training records: Hitting—Don Lenhardt (.462, 22-for-52) 1954 and Al Pilarcik (.435, 40-for-92) in 1958. . . . Home Runs—8, Tito Francona (1956) and Frank Robinson (1966); Runs Batted In—25, Francona (1956) and Gus Triandos (1959).
